Statement by the NPA on 11th of February 2011.

The Egyptian people, the young people, the workers mobilizing daily for several weeks have won against the dictator Mubarak, in place for 30 years.

Bloody repression, the trial of strength, demagogic operations did not succeed in defeating the millions demonstrators who, in the path of the Tunisian revolution, started and would not stop.

The wind of the history is blowing in favour of social and democratic revolutions as the answer to the economic, social and ecological crisis which is destroying the working and living conditions of the popular classes.

The NPA will be at the sides of the Egyptian people in their fight for liberation.
