The 33-Day War: Israel's War on Hezbollah in Lebanon & its Consequences

Gilbert Achar, Michel Warschawski

Paradigm Publishers (pb) 978-1-59451-409-8 $16.96 â¬11.40

Achar and Warschawski teamed up following the events of October 2006 to assess the causes and consequences of Israel's very own "Vietnam". The book dissects the strategic and political background behind Israel's actions and the effects on Lebanon's own population.

Achar, who lived in Lebanon for many years before moving to France, is a regular contributor to Le Monde Diplomatique.

Warschawski is a veteran journalist and peace activist who helped found the Alternative Information Center, a Palestinian-Israeli news organisation that distributes information, research and political analysis on Palestinian and Israeli societies.
