We do not need "great symbols of authority" with double standards: expel patriarchal behavior and harassment from our social movements!

Every year in June, the annual memorial of the Tiananmen Square crackdown is held around the world. The annual memorial was also held in Tokyo on June 4 this year. Many young people participated in it. On that day, many young Chinese who had no direct knowledge of the incident also attended the memorial ceremonies held in London and New York. Red bowls with the same slogans as those used by the youth during the 1989 Tiananmen Square protests were prepared. Again this year, young people gave speeches, but with a different look than in previous years. Leaflets with the following wording were distributed.
